PRACTICE TIME

The Buckeyes practice daily from 2 to 4 p.m. prior to Spring Break and from 3-5 p.m. after. Monday will typically be an off day. Ohio State utilizes the indoor practice field at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center, the indoor hitting cages beneath the team offices on the third base side of the field and, of course, Bill Davis Stadium for its practices.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

Tuesday afternoon before practice is typically reserved for on-site media availability. Please contact Jerry Emig in the OSU Athletics Communications office to arrange all interviews with coaches and student-athletes. Please call at least one day in advance to allow enough time to make arrangements.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

Postgame interviews will begin approximately 10 minutes after the final out of the game. Visiting coaches and players are available beneath the stands outside of the visiting team locker room. Media availability for OSU coaches and players will be in the players' lounge. A member of the OSU Athletics Communications staff will escort the media into the player lounge for interviews.

GREG BEALS

HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON AT OHIO STATE

Greg Beals, a Springfield, Ohio native with 17 years of coaching experience, including eight years as head coach at Ball State where he won 243 games and three Mid American Conference West Division championships, is in his first season as head coach of the Ohio State Buckeyes. Beals was named to his position on June 17, 2010, following a national search to replace the winningest coach in school history, Bob Todd.

Beals, who also guided Ball State to the first MAC Tournament crown in school history, to perhaps the biggest win in school history – a 2006 NCAA Lexington Regional win over No. 1 seed Kentucky – and who was named the “best game coach” in the MAC in 2009 by Collegebaseballinsider.com, thus became only the fourth coach in the last 60 years and only the 11th coach in 127 years of baseball at one of the nation’s most comprehensive universities.

This hands-on teacher, team- and program-builder, family man – he and his wife Kathy, a four-year basketball letterwinner at Kent State, have three daughters: Kayla, Amber and Morgan – and administrator was clearly the right choice to assume responsibilities of coaching the oldest sport on Ohio State’s campus.

He left the search committee somewhat stunned and speechless for a few moments when he initially introduced himself to the group. He spoke of families, including his personal family, his Athletics Department family and the family of young men he developed at Ball State. He also spoke of his career in the sport as a player and coach, and his strong desire – no, make that life-long dream bordering on passion – to be the next baseball coach at the state school located just an hour from his home town.

The committee of Ohio State administrators plus senior baseball players Tyler Engle and Dean Wolosiansky then proceeded to learn much more about this Springfield, Ohio native who has bachelor’s (1995; human movement studies) and master’s (1999; sports administration) degrees from Kent State, where he also played four years of baseball.

The committee liked what it heard, it liked the sincerity of his delivery, his enthusiasm for engaging various audiences – the surrounding community, alumni, the University as a whole and potential recruits – and his goal of taking Ohio State back to the College World Series.

“I can not tell you how excited I am about this opportunity,” Beals said back on June 17 at his introductory press conference. “I look forward to donning the Ohio State Block ‘O’ cap and representing The Ohio State University. I have surrounded myself with great people – administrators, coaches and student-athletes – that I will be forever grateful to. Now I join an Athletics Department that embraces the motto ‘You Win with People.’”

Ohio State will win with Greg Beals. Ball State certainly did!

Beals led Ball State to a 243-202 record in his eight seasons as coach with three seasons of 36-or-more victories. After setting the school record for a first-year coach with 36 wins in 2003, Beals led the Cardinals to consecutive 38-win seasons, including the NCAA Regional appearance in 2006 – Ball State’s first NCAA Regional since 1969 – and to MAC West Division crowns in 2003, 2005 and 2009.

His teams were 2-2 vs. Ohio State. They were 4-1 vs. Indiana, 5-4 vs. Purdue and a respectable 5-8 vs. Louisville. They were also known to play any team anywhere, including series vs. Arkansas, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Vanderbilt on the road.

Beals’ abilities as a recruiter – in terms of finding and then developing talent – have yielded most impressive results. He watched 21 of his Ball State players get selected in the Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft, including four players in 2006 and three players in both 2009 and 2010.

This year, in fact, Beals looked on as his 2010 first-team All-American utility player – Kolbrin Vitek, from Bryan, Ohio – was selected with the 20th pick of the first round by the Boston Red Sox and third-year sophomore pitcher Perci Garner, from Dover, Ohio, was chosen in the second round by the Philadelphia Phillies. A third Cardinal – Zach Dygert – was selected in the 22nd round by the Houston Astros.

Ball State players have thrived off the playing field under Beals, as well. His most recent team boasted a team Grade Point Average of 3.04 and 14 of his players were named to the MAC all-academic team.

Prior to his position at Ball State, he was an assistant coach for nine seasons at his alma mater, Kent State. He was a part of three Golden Flash teams to make an NCAA Regional – 1994, 2001 and 2002 – and three that won MAC championships. He also worked with 21 players who would sign professional contracts and 17 who would be named to the MAC all-academic team.

Beals, who spent three seasons in the New York Mets' farm system after his playing career at Kent State, attended Kenton Ridge High School in Springfield, Ohio, where he played baseball under Coach Tom Randall, a member of the Ohio High School Baseball Coaches' Association Hall of Fame.

We Are Family!

Greg and Kathy Beals, along with daughters Kayla, Amber and Morgan, were all at Bill Davis Stadium on June 17, 2010, the day Greg was named Ohio State's head baseball coach.

MIKE STAFFORD

PITCHING COACH | FIRST SEASON

The coaching team of Greg Beals and Mike Stafford will continue. It's not as if this comes as too great of a surprise for those in the collegiate baseball circles, and particularly to those who have watched the two succeed along the recruiting trails or between the base paths the past seven seasons instructing, mentoring and coaxing the most out of their student-athletes at Ball State University. It became official this past June when Beals, the first-year coach of the Buckeyes, named Stafford, the former Buckeye reliever, as his pitching coach.

"I am very happy to have Coach Stafford joining our coaching staff and returning to his alma mater," Beals said. "'Staff' and I became a team seven years ago because we had such similar philosophies and beliefs. He will do great things with the Ohio State pitching staff and I look forward to him bringing his Big Ten championship experience to our program."

Stafford, Beals' pitching coach since 2003 and top assistant/chief recruiter since 2005, is thrilled at the opportunity to return to his alma mater and coach.

"I am returning to the best University in the Midwest with a great baseball program, academic reputation and athletic resources," Stafford said. "I can't really feel and believe I am returning yet, and it probably won't truly hit me until I put on the uniform, but I am excited to be a part of the program again. I had a great experience as a player and I'm really looking forward to contributing as a coach."

Stafford, from Canton, Mich., and Plymouth Canton High School, was a part of Ohio State teams from 1994-98 that won two Big Ten championships, three Big Ten tournament crowns and went to three NCAA tournaments. The 1997 team was also the first to play in Bill Davis Stadium.

Stafford starred for the Buckeyes out of the bullpen his final two seasons. He led the team in earned run average in both 1997 (2.27) and 1998 (2.54), posting a combined 9-4 record in the process. He appeared in 52 games and he was a second-team all-Big Ten selection in 1998.

He still ranks among the school's leaders in appearances (26th with 52), career saves (12th with seven), single season saves (12th with six in 1998) and single season appearances (15th with 29 in 1998).

Stafford spent four seasons in professional baseball after graduating from Ohio State. He was drafted in the 41st round of the 1998 MLB draft by Toronto and played for two years with the organization. He moved to the New York Yankees and pitched for the Tampa Bay Yankees in 1999 and 2000. He then spent parts of 2000 and 2001 playing in the Milwaukee Brewers' farm system.

Stafford decided to get into coaching after his playing days, and why not? He certainly had enough playing experience and the sport was in his blood. His father, Bill, pitched eight seasons in the big leagues, including six years for the Yankees. He was the Yankees' No. 2 starter behind Whitey Ford and played on five World Series teams, including world championship teams in 1961 and 1962. He won 14 games for the Yankees in each of those seasons.

It was Stafford's father, it should be noted, who picked up the win for the Yankees on Oct. 1, 1961...the same day that Roger Maris broke Babe Ruth's home run record with his 61st off Boston's Tracey Stallard.

Mike Stafford's first coaching opportunity came with the Columbus Clippers. He spent the 2001-02 seasons working as bullpen coach, warming up relievers during games, throwing batting practice and catching bullpens.

One day in Fall 2003 Stafford received a phone call from Beals, who had received glowing recommendations about Stafford. The two spoke for about an hour on the phone. A week later Stafford interviewed for an opening on Beals' staff. The two have been together since.

Despite not having a Bill Davis Stadium or the roar of the Ohio State name to recruit to, Beals and Stafford were most successful recruiting and developing big-time players at Ball State, including:

- 2010 first-round MLB draft pick and first-team All-American Kolbrin Vitek, a freshman All-American in 2006 after a 6-1 campaign on the mound as a weekend starter in the MAC;
- 2010 second-round MLB draft pick Perci Garner, a football player who missed more than a year of baseball but who found his home on the mound and was the 77th pick in the draft;
- Kyle Heyne, twice drafted while at Ball State and who set the school record with 32 saves;
- Ben Snyder, a fourth-round MLB draft pick in 2006 after he went 8-5 with 108 strikeouts; and
- 2005 NCBWA Stopper of the Year finalist Erik Morrison, the MAC Pitcher of the Year after posting a 7-0 record with a 1.32 ERA and a school-record 15 saves.

Now Stafford, who is married (Amanda), and Beals will look to continue to grow their success as collegiate coaches; only now as Ohio State Buckeye coaches.

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST SEASON

- Holick also was around the ASU program in the fall of 2000 while working as operations manager for the Grand Canyon Rafter of MLB's Arizona Fall League.
- He coached four years at Florida International (2004-07) under the direction of Danny Price, the winningest coach in FIU history whose final season of 28 at the school was in 2007. His responsibilities with FIU included work as the team's hitting coordinator, catching coach and a season with its pitchers.

It was after the 2007 season that Holick, who was named Academic All-Big Ten while at IU and Academic All-MAC at KSU, took his position with Eli Lilly. It was always intended to be a temporary position, though, as Holick had plans of getting back into coaching.

Holick was an accomplished player. He played in 82 games for the Hoosiers and made 60 starts, including 53 starts in 1997 when he hit .301, scored 30 runs and drove in another 21. He was part of the 1996 Hoosier team that won the Big Ten tournament and played in the NCAA Midwest Regional.

As a two-year starter at shortstop for Kent State, Holick helped the Golden Flashes to 60 victories, including a 36-24 mark in the MAC. He displayed his defensive prowess by recording 167 assists in 1999, which at the time was second-most in school history and still ranks sixth.

With his degree in English obtained, Holick spent the 2000 season on the Kent State coaching staff that included Beals and helped the team reach the NCAA tournament.

He was then a part of three Arizona State teams that advanced to NCAA Super Regionals each year, giving Holick a total of five NCAA tournaments on his playing or coaching resume. It's a number Holick would like to see increase as soon as possible.

- "It is such a great feeling to get into NCAA Regionals and to experience an opportunity to win a championship," Holick said. "There is nothing like winning a championship and with the leadership of Coach Beals it is something we all will be seeking at Ohio State."

JOSH NEWMAN

VOLUNTEER COACH | FIRST SEASON

First-year Ohio State baseball coach Greg Beals rounded out his coaching staff when he named former Major Leaguer and Ohio State pitching standout Josh Newman as the team's volunteer assistant coach.

"It is an honor and a privilege to be back," said Newman, a four-year Ohio State letterman between 2001-04. "My journey began here at The Ohio State University and as a professional player you need a home base. I made mine Columbus and OSU. I worked out in the off season right here on campus. I stayed close with the baseball program and athletic support staff. They were and still are my support. Now I will be happy to provide that same support to the new recruits and players of this great university; to welcome them to the Buckeye family just as warmly as I was welcomed."

The announcement of Newman joining the staff means that former Buckeyes now hold two of the four coaching positions with the baseball program. Beals had previously named former Buckeye reliever Mike Stafford as his pitching coach. Kent State graduate Chris Holick was named the team's other assistant coach.

"I am very excited about Josh joining our coaching staff," Beals said. "He brings great experience at the professional level and at the collegiate level here at Ohio State that will be extremely valuable to our program and pitching staff. His addition further emphasizes the importance of pitching to the future of Ohio State baseball and the attention that our pitchers will receive. Josh's conviction about Ohio State and what we in the baseball program are doing will be very valuable."

A native of Wheelersburg, Ohio and a 2004 Ohio State graduate with a degree in history, Newman ranks third all-time on the Ohio State career wins (32), innings pitched (369.0) and strikeouts (291) lists. He was a freshman All-American in 2001 and a three-time all-Big Ten honoree, including a first-team selection in 2004. He posted eight victories in each of his four seasons as a Buckeye starter and in the process posted a 17-8 record vs. Big Ten Conference foes. He had 17 complete games during his career.

A three-time Academic all-Big Ten honoree, Newman helped the Buckeyes to a 161-84-1 record, a Big Ten regular season championship (2001) and two Big Ten tournament championships (2002 and 2003) in his career. Ohio State went to three NCAA Regional tournaments and hosted an NCAA Super Regional (2003) in his four years in Columbus.

Newman has pitched and performed well in as big a game as any Buckeye in the last 40-plus years, picking up a Game 1 win in the Auburn Regional in 2003 over host Auburn and also starting Game 1 of the Columbus Super Regional one week later against Missouri State.

Newman was drafted in the 19th round of the 2004 MLB First Year Player Draft and signed a professional contract with the Colorado Rockies. He had previously been drafted by the Cincinnati Reds in 2003 but he elected to stay at Ohio State for his senior season.

The Wheelersburg High School graduate spent three seasons in the minors before making his Major League debut against Philadelphia on Sept. 12, 2007, and making the Colorado Rockies World Series roster that season. He jumped between Triple-A Colorado Springs and the Rockies in 2008 before being claimed off waivers by the Kansas City Royals in July. Newman pitched in 14 games over his two seasons between Colorado and Kansas City, making his last appearance in September 2008.

After retiring from professional baseball in March of 2010, Newman went on to start his own baseball instruction business, Pitch TO Pitch, which provides individual and team lessons to Central Ohio youth. He resides in Dublin, Ohio, with his wife, Sarah, and two young children: daughter, Ayda, and son, Kash.

"I have been blessed," Newman said. "I have a beautiful family; I received a great education/athletic career from OSU; I fulfilled a childhood dream to play professional baseball and now I get to continue in the sport...to be a part of other baseball players' dreams. No one will work harder and be more committed to see those through. I am proud to a part of the Buckeye family once more."

MORE OHIO STATE BASEBALL FAMILY

Three months after Greg Beals was named head coach, more than 50 players returned for an Alumni Weekend organized by Beals and his staff.

Ohio State Buckeye and New York Yankee Nick Swisher welcomed AD Gene Smith and Greg Beals to New York this summer.

Ohio State baseball honored the eight seniors on the 2010 team prior to their final home game last year, vs. Minnesota.

The coaching family includes Kathy, Kayla, Amber & Morgan Beals, Amanda Stafford, Sarah (expecting Kash) and Ayda Newman and Greg's mom & step-father, Karlene & Mark Keating.

Buckeye great Nick Swisher was honored by the Dept. of Athletics during the Ohio State vs. Michigan football game last year at Ohio Stadium.

Each year Ohio State baseball invites former captains to a "captains breakfast" and the number of former captains who attend continues to increase.

Ohio State baseball has long been a part of the university's history. Only 11 years after The Ohio State University was founded it had a baseball team, the school's first official sport. From its early beginnings in the late 1800s through four College World Series appearances, including a national title win in 1966, to its collection of 19 NCAA tournament berths and 23 Big Ten Conference regular season and tournament championships, Buckeye baseball has written 127 years worth of rich tradition and it seeks to add to that tradition rather nicely in 2011.

BILL DAVIS STADIUM

William C. Davis

William H. Davis

THE STADIUM STORY

It is safe to say that we would not be enjoying the comforts of Ohio State baseball's gem of a ball park, Bill Davis Stadium, if not for the love, kindness and the benevolence of Ms. Dorothy M. Davis, who generously donated more than $1.5 million toward the $4.7 million final cost of the Buckeye venue.

Bill Davis Stadium is named in memory of Dorothy's late stepson, William C. "Bill" Davis. He was chairman and president of Davis Enterprises, builder and developer of commercial and residential subdivisions, and a great fan of Ohio State athletics. A member of The President's Club, Bill was a graduate of St. Charles Preparatory School in Columbus and Xavier University.

Dorothy Davis did not realize the size of the stadium or its magnitude when she visited the construction site in November 1996, just one week before she would pass away from complications from a brain aneurysm. The construction, visibly impressive with the cement pillars that would support the stands reaching high into the sky, caused her to remark to head coach Bob Todd, "I can't believe this is what we are building. I never imagined a real stadium. This is absolutely wonderful."

Dorothy and her late husband, William H. Davis (B.S. Business Administration '26), contributed more than $6 million to The Ohio State University, including gifts to support the William H. Davis Medical Research Center, and the establishment of several named endowments, including the Dorothy M. Davis Chair in Cancer Research, the William H. Davis Endowment for Basic Medical Research, and the William H. Davis Chair in the American Free Enterprise System.

In addition, Dorothy was a founding member of The Ohio State University Foundation Board, and was an active volunteer and advocate for Ohio State, both in Central Ohio and from her winter home in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Bill Wells, nephew of the late Ms. Dorothy Davis and an ardent baseball supporter, threw out Bill Davis Stadium's ceremonial first pitch on March 14, 1997.

The start of every new season brings with it loads of thoughts, notes, numbers, statistics, recaps, quotes and, quite simply, tons of information that every fan, alum, friend and reporter who follows the Buckeyes should know. So...here is a start of things to know about the 2011 Ohio State baseball season: from hello to Huntington Park.

"Hello coach"

Beals was hired from Ball State University this June after a national search to find a successor to Hall of Fame coach Bob Todd, the winningest coach in Ohio State history. Beals played collegiately at Kent State, where he also received bachelor's and master's degrees, and for three years in the New York Mets farm system.

"Staff" & the staff

Beals brought with him to Ohio State his pitching coach and recruiting coordinator the last seven years with him at Ball State: Ohio State graduate Mike Stafford. Chris Holick, from Westlake, Ohio and a Kent State grad, is the other fulltime assistant. Josh Newman, a 32-game winner for the Buckeyes in the early 2000s and a young man who knows what it takes to pitch in the big leagues because he made 14 starts for Colorado and Kansas City, is the team's volunteer assistant coach.

The energy to bring it...

Commenting one day on the makeup of his coaching staff, Beals said the most important attribute of his staff was that, collectively, they had the "energy to bring it every day," meaning he wanted a staff that develops a practice plan and then executes it with high energy on a daily basis. Just watch a practice sometime. They bring it!

128

Baseball, the oldest sport on Ohio State's campus with a beginning in 1881, will open its 128th season of play this season.

33

There are 33 members on the team. In terms of eligibility: the team is comprised of seven seniors, six juniors, nine sophomores and 11 freshmen.

Vets and rookies

Eighteen players who were with the team last year return and there are 15 student-athletes who were new to the team when fall baseball practice started. The returnees include 12 lettermen.

Returning starters

Three players who were considered everyday starters last year – SS Tyler Engle, RF Brian DeLucia and 1B Matt Streng – return from last season; only three. Streng has switched positions: he'll play third base this season.

In addition to Engle, DeLucia and Streng at the positions noted above, here's who to possibly expect in the opening day lineup:

- LF will be a platoon situation initially with junior David Corna and sophomore Joe Ciamacco sharing starts and helping each other through the game-day learning process. They have one game and one at-bat between them.
- CF will feature true freshman Tim Wetzel, a left-handed hitter who has speed and defensive prowess.
- RF is all DeLucia's. Citing the jumps he gets on the ball, his speed and his arm strength, Beals says DeLucia is "as good a defensive outfielder as I've been around in my coaching career."
- 3B will be Streng's position. The senior is called "steady" by Beals.
- SS will be manned by Engle, the anchor of the infield according to Beals, for a fourth consecutive year.
- 2B was seized by sophomore Ryan Cypret. A coaches' son – his Dad, Greg, the longtime Buckeye assistant is now an assistant at Akron, Cypret won the position, according to Beals, by making huge strides over the offseason both offensively and with his athleticism. "He has been leading the charge in our conditioning drills," Beals said. "And the reasons behind that are his improved athleticism and he is a great competitor."

- In summary, that's two starters returning to their everyday position from 2010; a third returning starter making a switch to third base; five first-year starters and a new designated hitter.

Engle has made a team-high 137 starts with Streng (88) and DeLucia (74) next on the list. Hallberg (28) and Cypret (nine) are the only other position players who have started a game for Ohio State.

Current players have hit a total of 23 home runs as Buckeyes. DeLucia (10), Streng (nine) and Engle (three) are the only Buckeyes who have multiple career home runs. Juco transfer Brad Hutton hit 24 in his two seasons at Polk State College in Winter Haven, Fla.

Pitching coach Mike Stafford, along with Newman, have 16 pitchers on staff but only five have worked 20 or more innings. A sneak peek of who the Buckeye coaches expect to utilize early in the season:

- Three young men – seniors Drew Rucinski and Dean Wolosiansky and freshman Greg Greve – have risen to the top of the starting rotation group, according to Beals. Rucinski has pitched 175.0 innings and has 28 Big Ten Conference appearances among his 71 total appearances. He has 17 career wins. Wolosiansky has logged 258.0 innings and has 22 victories, including 15 vs. Big Ten teams.
- Sophomore Brett McKinney is coming off a minor knee surgery in the offseason that has slowed him a bit. Regardless, Beals says he is throwing well and will be available to pitch at the start of the season.
- Beals expects plenty of innings out of the bullpen from senior Jared Strayer. He was lights out the second half of the season last year – after having a minor surgery in March – with a 3.30 earned run average, 15 strikeouts and only six walks in the second half of the season.
- Deze is a talented freshman in more ways than one and he is the leading candidate to be the Buckeyes' closer. Beals is certainly aware of the adjustments and preparation it will take he and Stafford to manage if Deze is playing first or is in the lineup as a DH, but he is ok with it. They have managed similar scenarios before with excellent results.
- The coaches will look to a couple of veteran lefties – fifth-year senior Theron Minium and fourth-year junior Andrew Armstrong – to throw quality innings and create favorable matchup opportunities.

Two other pitchers – junior Brian Bobinski and sophomore Cole Brown – pitched in limited roles for the Buckeyes last year which leaves the coaches with five available pitchers who have yet to pitch in a collegiate game.

The wild card

That would be junior right-hander Brad Goldberg, a transfer from Coastal Carolina who is seeking to be eligible this season to pitch for the Buckeyes. If he is granted a waiver, he fits in with the top three starters on the team, according to Beals.

Two you won't see

Two transfers from Division I schools are not eligible to compete this year because of transfer rules: Mike Carroll, an outfielder from Duke University; and right-handed pitcher Brock Trimbур, from Ohio University. Both players will have three years of eligibility starting with the 2012 season.

Brothers

Two sets of brothers are on the team. Ben and Josh Bokor are true freshmen twins – Josh is older, by three minutes – from Gahanna and Brad and Blake Hutton are from Orlando, Fla. Brad is a junior and Blake is a true freshman.

Going west

Ohio State will make a west coast swing during spring break with three games at California, two at Fresno State and three at Cal State-Bakersfield. It is being reported that this will be the last season of baseball at Cal... a stunning development in the college baseball world.

Exhibition vs. the Clippers

For the first time in a long, long time, Ohio State will play an exhibition game against the Columbus Clippers. Clippers President, GM and good guy Ken Schnacke, who's been with the team 33 years, could not recall the last time the teams played. They'll play an exhibition game April 5 at Huntington Park starting at 6:35 p.m.

Starting with the Northwestern series April 1, 1460 AM The Fan will carry 28 regular season games and all of the Buckeyes' post-season tournament action. The veteran Buckeye announcer Frank Fraas will handle most of the play-by-play with Marty Bannister taking over for most of the road Big Ten games.

Ohio State will face the same eight Big Ten teams in the same order as it did last year, but the location is reversed. The Buckeyes will host Northwestern, travel to Indiana, host Michigan State, travel to Penn State, host Michigan, travel to Illinois, host Iowa and close the regular season at Minnesota. Ohio State does not play Purdue in the regular season.

The Columbus Clippers' lovely, two-year-old stadium in downtown Columbus' Arena District will host the 2011 Big Ten tournament May 25-28.

2010 SEASON IN REVIEW

BOB TODD TURNS THE PAGE

When Ohio State dropped the first two games of its season-ending series the weekend of May 20-22 against Minnesota, the record run of consecutive Big Ten tournament appearances for Ohio State (13), the career of Hall of Fame Coach Bob Todd and the dreams of back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances came to a surprising, disappointing and abrupt end for the wearers of the Scarlet and Gray baseball jerseys. And so did the collegiate careers of the eight seniors - good guys, class individuals and quite simply good people - on the team.

Eric Best, Ryan Dew, Shawn Forsythe, Chris Griffin, Zach Hurley, Cory Kovanda, Cory Rupert and Michael Stephens had expected a huge senior campaign. Coming off a Big Ten championship in 2009 - the 15th in school history - and an NCAA regional berth, the co-captains - Hurley and Kovanda - and their classmates were optimistic that 2010 could be the year that Ohio State broke its College World Series drought of 43 years.

But for whatever reason...or reasons...the 2010 Buckeyes didn't have it. The team started out with a 12-4 record and was sporting a .360 team batting average that was more than enough might to offset 27 errors in its first 16 games.

Thirty games into the season the Buckeyes were 21-9 overall, 6-2 in the Big Ten Conference and sitting in first place. The team's earned run average was at a season-low 4.31 and the batting average was still near the top of the Big Ten at .335.

But starting with a 14-7 Game 3 loss to Michigan State, Ohio State would hit a funk where its hitting, pitching and fielding simply couldn't find the same page for any consistent stretch of games. The Buckeyes lost five consecutive Big Ten series and 14 of its final 21 games to finish in a tie for seventh-place in the Big Ten with an 11-13 record and a 28-23 overall mark.

A 4-3 Game 2 loss to Minnesota on May 22 eliminated the Buckeyes from the Big Ten tournament with a game still to be played. Following a ceremony to honor the eight seniors and to retire coach Bob Todd's No. 18 jersey, the Buckeyes thumped Big Ten champion Minnesota, 9-6, giving the seniors a career-capping victory and No. 1,025 for their coach.

127 YEARS OF OHIO STATE BASEBALL

126-YEAR TIMELINE

THE EARLY YEARS

- 1881 – In a Spring Quarter edition of The Lantern, the student-run newspaper makes a request for organized sports, including baseball and track for entertainment and recreational purposes. The first Ohio State team calls itself the Franklins. It defeats the Mutuals of Capital University, 8-5, in its only game.
- 1883 – The team was disbanded after one game, apparently the result of “trouble in the athletic association.”
- 1887 – First of three years Ohio State does not have a team to represent the university. In both 1887 and 1910, the baseball season was cancelled because of a lack of financial support while in 1908, the season was suspended due to construction on Ohio Field.
- 1890 – The first season where more than a handful of games were played, the Buckeyes post an 11-3 record, including a record of 5-3 in the Intercollegiate League.
- 1892 – The first season with known statistics. Second baseman T.T. Shaw leads the team with a .321 average.
- 1912-14 – George M. “Red” Trautman is a three-sport letterwinner at Ohio State who would later hold various positions in the Department of Athletics. The Buckeyes would play their baseball games at George M. Trautman Field from 1966 until 1997.
- 1913 – Ohio State joins the Western Conference, a predecessor of the Big Ten Conference, and hires its first full-time coach, Lynn W. St. John.
- 1917 – Ohio State posts a 15-1 record and a 6-1 conference mark to win its first Western Conference baseball championship.
- 1933 – Floyd Stahl, the freshman baseball coach and junior varsity football coach, takes over for L.W. St. John as head coach.
- 1939 – Frederick “Fritz” Mackey, a 1927 Ohio State graduate and football and baseball letterman, replaces Stahl as head coach.
- 1947 – Stahl, after an eight-year stint at Harvard, returns to coach the team for four more seasons...the first and only two-time Ohio State coach.

THE MARTY KAROW ERA - 1951-75

- 1951 – Ohio State baseball wins the Big Ten Conference title in Karow's first season and makes its first appearance at the NCAA tournament and the College World Series (CWS).
- 1955 – The Buckeyes win the Big Ten Conference championship in the season finale with a 7-2 win over Michigan.
- 1965 – The Buckeyes win the first of three consecutive Big Ten titles and advance to their second College World Series where the team takes runner-up honors.
- 1966 – Ohio State wins its first national title and Steve Arlin is MVP of the 20th CWS.
- 1967 – The Buckeyes make their fourth College World Series appearance.
- 1975 – Karow, now 70, retires from the head coaching position after 25 seasons. His last home game coached is a 1-0 win over Michigan.

BIG TEN TOURNAMENT HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE BIG TEN TOURNAMENT

OHIO STATE HAS WON EIGHT CONFERENCE TOURNAMENTS

The inaugural season for Big Ten baseball was in 1896 when Chicago, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin competed for the first time as a conference.

In 1947, it was decided that tie games would count as one-half game won and one-half game lost for the determination of winning percentages.

The 1981 season marked the first under the divisional playoff system which was created in order to determine a conference champion. The teams were split up into two divisions: the East which contained Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State and Purdue and the West comprised of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Northwestern and Wisconsin. The top two teams in each division were invited to the championship playoff and the winner was declared the Big Ten Champion.

The teams returned to single division play in 1988 and the top four would play in ence crown. Beginning in 1993, the present championship format was established. The team with the highest winning percentage through all regular season conference games is declared the Big Ten champion.

In December 2008 the Big Ten elected to go to a neutral site for the six-team post-season tournament (with the tournament winner the automatic qualifier for the NCAA tournament). The 2011 tournament will be played at Huntington Park, in downtown Columbus, Ohio. The new facility is the home of the Columbus Clippers, the AAA affiliate of the Cleveland Indians.

Note – 1946 was the last season that Chicago would participate as a Big Ten institution and Michigan State began playing in the Big Ten in 1949. Wisconsin's last baseball team was in 1991 and Penn State became eligible for conference play in 1993.

DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

The Ohio State varsity program is respected as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics and is 36 sports strong – 16 for men, 17 for women and three coed. The department operates on a budget in excess of $100 million. Each year, Ohio State teams claim numerous Big Ten championships, compete in NCAA tournaments and vie for national titles while producing countless individual conference and national champions, All-America performers and scholar-athletes.

Ohio State's Department of Athletics is under the direction of Eugene Smith. Just the eighth athletics director in Ohio State history, Smith has developed a vision that will keep the Buckeyes among the nation's elite in the 21st century.

Ohio State is recognized across the country as a leader in collegiate athletics. More than 1,000 student-athletes participated in 2009-10.

With rich tradition as a foundation and with state-of-the-art facilities, such as Bill Davis Stadium, Value City Arena at the Jerome Schottenstein Center, Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, the Younkin Success Center and Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes' outlook for the future appears even brighter than their glorious past.

WHAT IS A BUCKEYE?

A small, shiny, dark brown nut with a light tan patch that comes from the official state tree of Ohio, the buckeye tree. According to folklore, the Buckeye resembles the eye of a deer and carrying one brings good luck. "Buckeyes" has been the official Ohio State nickname since 1950, but it had been in common use for many years before.

The first recorded use of the term Buckeye to refer to a resident of the area was in 1788, some 15 years before Ohio became a state. Col. Ebenezer Sproat, a 6-foot-4-inch man of large girth and swashbuckling mannerisms, led the legal delegation at the first court session of the Northwest Territory in Marietta. The Indians in attendance greeted him with shouts of "Hetuck, Hetuck" (the Indian word for buckeye), it is said because they were impressed by his stature and manner. He proudly carried the Buckeye nickname for the rest of his life and it gradually spread to his companions and other local settlers. By the 1830s, writers were commonly referring to locals as "Buckeyes."

OHIO STATE TRADITIONS

BUCKEYE LEAVES

A round white decal, about the size of a quarter, with a green depiction of a buckeye leaf is applied to Ohio State football helmets for big plays and consistency on the field. This tradition started in 1968 when football coach Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. Many of the sports at Ohio State incorporate Buckeye Leaves into their equipment and uniforms.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State University Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home football games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with a senior sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot where the sousaphone player then assumes the post of honor, doffs his or her hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

Woody Hayes, Bob Hope and Jack Nicklaus are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i."

First performed at the OSU-Pittsburgh football game Oct. 10, 1936, Script Ohio was named one of Athlon Sports' 10 Greatest Football Traditions in 1999.

BRUTUS BUCKEYE

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. In 1965, an art student designed and introduced the first Brutus, while the name was chosen in a contest. The mascot began as a hardened paper mache affair that looked like a bowling ball with legs. In 1975, a radical new Brutus was designed with a prune-like head and a man's body. That attempt was booed off the field and was re-worked, giving way to a mascot comparable to the beloved present-day Brutus.

The original choices for Ohio State's mascot included a ram, an elk, a moose and the leading candidate, a male deer. Due to the skittish nature of deer, the idea of a mascot was tabled until January 1941 when "Chris," a German police dog owned by an assistant cheerleader, made an appearance at a basketball game. The dog's career was short-lived and OSU remained without an official mascot until the 1960s.

SCHOOL SONGS

Ohio State proudly boasts an alma mater (Carmen Ohio), two fight songs (Across the Field and Buckeye Battle Cry) and a state rock song (Hang on Sloopy).

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
that's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field,
show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

SCARLET AND GRAY

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, scarlet and gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

TBDBITL

"The Best Damn Band in the Land" is the 225-member, all-brass Ohio State University Marching Band that formed in 1879 as a military band. Also known as "The Pride of the Buckeyes," the band perhaps is best known for the incomparable Script Ohio. Another band tradition of note is the "skull session," a warmup concert/pep rally in St. John Arena, open to the public before every home football game that allows the band to play and "think through" the show one last time. More than 10,000 fans regularly attend each skull session.

CHEERLEADERS

Buckeye cheerleaders are a constant source of support at all athletics events. The squad took second at the 2001 College Cheerleading National Championship, its highest finish since winning the 1993 title, and has placed first in the northeast region in 19 of the last 21 years. The squad was 15th at the 2008 national championships. The cheerleaders make appearances all over the state of Ohio throughout the year.

CARMEN OHIO

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill, With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold. The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show, How firm thy friendship O-HI-O.

MAKING GREAT PLAYERS ELITE ATHLETES

SPEED, POWER, STRENGTH

Ohio State student-athletes benefit from a comprehensive and individualized strength and conditioning program designed to ensure the highest possible level of physical readiness.

Anthony Glass, director of athletics strength and conditioning for Olympic sports, and staff provide instruction specific to the individual, both in and out of season, and in collaboration with the Ohio State training and medical staffs.

Glass and his staff challenge the Buckeye contingency even further in the weight room in the areas of leadership, work ethic, attitude and ability with an annual Buckeye Power Club Award. Athletes from each varsity team who exemplify the highest levels of achievement are honored at the end of each school year with the award and in turn become eligible for National Strength and Conditioning Association All-America honors.

FIRST CLASS PHYSICIANS

Dr. Chris Kaeding is the head team physician for the Ohio State Department of Athletics and also serves as co-director of the OSU Sports Medicine Center. Dr. Kaeding oversees a staff of the finest sports medicine physicians, surgeons, dentists and counselors who monitor the overall well-being of each student-athlete on a year-round basis.

VETERAN ATHLETIC TRAINERS

Assistant athletics director of sports performance Janine Oman and head athletic trainer Doug Calland help lead the athletic training staff made up of veteran athletic trainers Angie Beisner, Mary "Sam" Laingen, Chalisa Fonza, Vince O'Brien, Katrina Stibel, Bob Sweeney and Alex Wong. This group forms one of the most highly respected sports medicine staffs in all of college athletics. The entire staff works extremely hard in the areas of injury prevention, treatment and rehabilitation and has an excellent resource in the OSU Medical Center to accomplish this goal. The OSU Athletic Training staff has worked in every major collegiate conference, the high school, professional and Olympic levels.

Ohio State's athletic training curriculum program is housed in the School of Allied Medical Professions and is considered one of the top undergraduate programs in the country. Buckeye student-athletes benefit from having these dedicated students assisting the staff. An athletic training student is assigned to each team, allowing someone from the athletic training staff to be present at every practice and game. Additionally, the athletic training staff hosts several seminars and workshops covering a variety athletic training and sports medicine topics throughout the year.

AVAILABLE RESOURCES

The entire medical staff is on 24-hour call should the need arise for urgent treatment. In the event testing or hospitalization is required, the Ohio State University Medical Center is one of the nation's most modern and comprehensive medical facilities.

PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT STAFF

BASEBALL

When student-athletes choose Ohio State, they certainly learn from the best coaches nationally in their respective sports. Not only will the coaching be of the finest quality but a nationally-recognized support staff will provide the student-athlete all necessary services.

No matter the need on or outside the field of play, Ohio State student-athletes are afforded the best professionals in their respective areas.

From the medical and athletic training staff to those who prepare the venues for competition, student-athletes benefit from an entire department whose goal is to make the student-athlete experience positive.

Each of the 36 varsity sports has a team of professionals assigned to assist the more than 1000 student-athletes that make up and drive the Ohio State Department of Athletics.

Academic counselors, a sports psychologist, a nutritionist, a team of physicians, experienced certified athletic trainers and strength and conditioning professionals along with media relations, equipment, video specialists, marketing, compliance, event management, ticket and facility managers all provide expertise in service to the Buckeye student-athlete.

Whether it is coaches, student-athletes or the scores of athletics department personnel, the goal at Ohio State is to provide the best possible experience for all who wear the Scarlet and Gray.

CARING FOR THE COMMUNITY

Ohio State student-athletes are community leaders, making an impact, not just on the local landscape, but on a global scale as well. # ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS GENE SMITH

Gene Smith is in his fifth year as director of athletics at The Ohio State University. He was named to his current position on March 5, 2005. On March 17, 2008, Gordon Gee, president of The Ohio State University, promoted Smith to university assistant vice president/director of athletics and he has since been named associate vice president/director of athletics.

Smith is the eighth person to hold the athletics director position at Ohio State and the first African-American to do so. He previously served as director of athletics at Arizona State, Iowa State, and Eastern Michigan Universities, and is entering his 24th year in the role.

At Ohio State, the 53-year old Smith oversees one of the nation's largest and most successful college athletic programs. The Buckeyes have 36 fully-funded varsity sports and more than 1,000 student-athletes. The department of athletics is completely self supporting and receives no university funds, tax dollars or student fees. In fiscal year 2008-09, the department transferred nearly $26 million in assessments to the university, including more than $13 million in grant-in-aid reimbursement. In Smith's first three years at Ohio State, the department of athletics finished in the black financially and increased its reserve fund.

Upon arriving at Ohio State, Smith quickly established himself as a respected and thoughtful leader, both within the university and the community. In the spring of 2007, he unveiled a five-year strategic plan, reflecting the department's goals and values. The strategic planning process, inclusive of the entire department, emphasized the development of the total student-athlete.

Under Smith's leadership, The Ohio State Department of Athletics was honored in the spring of 2008 with the Diversity in Athletics Award in the category of Overall Excellence in Diversity. Smith accepted the honor at the 43rd annual National Association of College Directors of Athletics Convention in Dallas.

Shortly after Ohio State was honored as a department for its dedication to diversity, Smith was individually recognized for his contribution to the sport of football.

The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame, announced in June of 2008 the recipients of the NFF's 2008 Major Awards. Smith was honored officially Dec. 9, 2008 in New York with the John L. Toner Award. Presented annually, the Toner Award is given to a director of athletics who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football.

Smith was recently appointed to the Governing Board of Trustees of the Lincoln Theatre Association. He was named to the position by the Franklin County (Ohio) Board of Commissioners. It is a three-year appointment effective March 10, 2009.

Nationally, Smith is involved with USA Basketball as a member of the Finance & Audit Committee. That appointment was made March 25, 2009. The Finance & Audit Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Board regarding the organization's financial investments, reviewing independent auditors for USA Basketball and, if necessary, oversight, implementation and compliance with the USA Basketball Code of Ethics.

Smith has an exemplary record of national leadership and service. In 2007, he served as president of the Division 1-A Athletic Directors Association. He is entering his third year on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee and was appointed chair of the committee for the 2010-11 academic year, with his term as chair beginning Sept. 1, 2010. Smith was recently named to the newly created Basketball Academic Enhancement Group, a 27-member panel charged with developing strategies to enhance academic performance and graduation rates in Division I men's basketball.

Smith is past president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and was that organization's first African-American president. He also has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Committee on Infractions, the NCAA Executive Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the President's Commission Liaison Committee, the NCAA Baseball Academic Enhancement Task Force, and the National Football Foundation Honors Court, among others.

In recognition of his service, Smith was named by Black Enterprise Magazine as one of the "50 Most Powerful African American in College Sports." In 2007, he was named to NACDA's inaugural "Legends Class," and was also named Athletic Administrator of the Year by the Black Coaches Association (BCA). In 2002-03, he received NACDA's AD of the Year honors for the Division 1-A West Region.

Smith grew up in Cleveland, Ohio, and attended the University of Notre Dame on a football scholarship. He played four years of football as a defensive end for the Irish and was a member of the 1973 Associated Press national championship team. Smith received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Notre Dame in 1977. Following graduation, he joined the Notre Dame coaching staff under Dan Devine and remained in that capacity until 1981. The 1977 Notre Dame team captured the undisputed national championship.

Smith left Notre Dame following the 1981 season to accept a marketing position with IBM. He returned to college athletics in April of 1983 as assistant athletics director at Eastern Michigan University. In 1985, he was appointed as interim director of athletics at Eastern, a position he held until 1986 when he became the director on a full-time basis.

In 1993, Smith was named director of athletics at Iowa State University. He moved to Arizona State as director of athletics in 2000.

As a former college athlete and coach, Smith is passionate about the well being of student-athletes. "We want to create an environment for our student-athletes to be successful academically, athletically and socially," he says. "The student-athlete experience provides teachable moments that prepare young women and men for success in life."

Smith is active in the Columbus community and is a member of the board of the YMCA of Central Ohio. He also is active with the Bell Center for African American males on Ohio State's campus.

Gene and his wife, Sheila, have four children: Matt, Nicole, Lindsey and Summer, and two grandchildren: Marshall and Steele. Sheila, a 1976 Canadian Olympian in basketball, holds a doctorate in higher education administration and is an associate vice president for development at Ohio State.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

JAMES E. DELANY Big Ten Conference Commissioner

Only the Big Ten's fifth commissioner since its founding in 1896, James E. Delany enters his 21st year in that role. He has led the Big Ten through significant periods of change and growth that have helped the conference maintain its preeminent position as one of the nation's leaders in providing quality athletic and academic experiences for young people.

STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITIES

- Big Ten universities provide approximately $100 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women.
- Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.

TOP ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

- Big Ten universities are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

MORE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, the Big Ten Network and CBS College Sports Network provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever.
- In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network devoted to the athletic and academic programs of a single conference. The Big Ten Network launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and became the first new network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million homes in its first 30 days. The Big Ten Network is now available to more than 70 million homes nationally through agreements with more than 250 cable/satellite affiliates and appears in 23 of the top 25 national media markets.
- Since the current media agreements began in 2007-08, every home football and men's basketball game has been produced while women's basketball has received more coverage than any other conference.
- The Big Ten's new media agreements have resulted in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally on an annual basis, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

NATION'S BEST FANS

- Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with more than 8.7 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2008-09 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.
- Over the last 31 seasons, the conference has ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in football, men's basketball and wrestling attendance. For the past 17 seasons, women's basketball has been ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in attendance.
- Big Ten institutions have more than 4.2 million living alumni and over 300,000 undergraduate students attending their universities.

The Big Ten Conference is a union of 11 world-class academic institutions who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

- During the 2008-09 season, the Big Ten claimed five team national championships, including titles for Iowa wrestling, Penn State fencing and women's volleyball, Northwestern lacrosse and Wisconsin women's ice hockey. In addition, Big Ten teams finished as the national runners-up in men's basketball and men's gymnastics.
- Big Ten teams have claimed at least three national titles in nine of the last 10 seasons (1999-2000 through 2008-09). Over the last decade, the Big Ten has produced team national crowns in the sports of basketball, cross country, fencing, field hockey, football, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, synchronized swimming, tennis, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERSHIP IN GENDER EQUITY

- Since 1992, the Big Ten has shown a strong commitment to increasing opportunities for women in sports and exposure of women's athletics by establishing a multi-phased gender equity program. In that time, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams, while expanding the number of women's championships to 13 by adding field hockey, soccer and rowing.
- As part of the gender equity action plan, the Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male/female participation goals for student-athletes in 1992. The Big Ten initiated a five-year plan for conference members to commit to a 60 percent/40 percent male-to-female student-athlete participation ratio. This was achieved as a conference by 1997 and 2000 was the first year that all institutions individually met this goal. As part of its commitment to gender equity, the Council of Presidents/Chancellors annually monitors this policy. During the 2007-08 year, all institutions were in compliance and the conference averaged a 52/48 male-to-female participation ratio.

BUILDING THE FUTURE

- In 1989, the Big Ten created a community outreach program—SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday), which partners the conference with two Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performances. What began with one school, two grade levels and five classrooms has grown in its 20th year to include grades kindergarten through eighth, encompassing all classes and students at Melody School and Louis Armstrong School.
- Following the national tragedy on Sept. 11, 2001, the Big Ten, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund", and the $1 million contribution will be drawn from conference reserves which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular-season television opportunities.
- The Big Ten has established numerous community programs surrounding the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, including the Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award Scholarship, the Big Ten Career Fair, the Hoops Day 5K and a partnership with the Pink Ribbon Connection, a local breast cancer organization.

NCAA COMPLIANCE REGULATIONS

The Ohio State University Athletics Compliance Office is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that educates everyone about the importance of adhering to NCAA, Big Ten, and institutional rules. We strive to create a "compliance conscience" within the university and throughout the community.

The commitment to compliance ensures institutional control over the department of athletics and furthers the mission of The Ohio State University. The existence of a successful compliance program depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes and boosters to be cognizant of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules.

WHAT IS COMPLIANCE?

At Ohio State, the athletics compliance office works within the department of athletics and the university to ensure Ohio State's compliance with all applicable rules. In doing so, the compliance office is charged with the following tasks:

- Educating administrators, coaches, staff, prospects, student-athletes and boosters about NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules;
- Developing monitoring systems to ensure compliance with these rules. These systems are designed to monitor rules pertaining to recruiting, academic eligibility, financial aid, awards, extra benefits, ethical conduct, amateurism, agents, employment, occasional meals and the playing and practice seasons for each sport; and
- Investigating and reporting violations of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules to the appropriate governing authority.

ARE YOU A BOOSTER?

You are a booster if you are or ever have:

- Been a member of a booster organization that supports Ohio State athletics;
- Made any financial contributions to any area of Ohio State;
- Made any annual or lifetime membership commitment to a booster organization;
- Been involved with the recruitment of a prospect;
- Provided benefits to an enrolled student-athlete or their relatives or friends;
- Been involved in promoting Ohio State's athletic program;
- Provided or helped to arrange employment for student-athletes;
- Participated in a group loosely associated with the athletics department (e.g., "Friends Of" group);
- Been a season ticket holder.

ONCE A BOOSTER ... ALWAYS A BOOSTER.

According to the NCAA, once an individual has been identified as a booster, he or she retains this identity forever.

If you do not meet the definition of a booster, you can still be classified as a booster if you provide benefits to prospects, student-athletes, their relatives or friends and any of the following statements are true.

- The relationship between the athlete (or parents of the athlete) and the individual providing the benefits developed as a result of the athlete's participation in athletics or their reputation as an athlete;
- The relationship began only after the athlete became a prospect;
- The relationship began only after the athlete had achieved notoriety because of his or her athletic ability or reputation; or
- The pattern of giving increased after the athlete attained notoriety as a skilled athlete.

WHAT IS AN EXTRA BENEFIT?

A recruiting inducement or extra benefit is any special arrangement by an Ohio State University employee or booster to provide a prospect, a student-athlete or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible extra benefits include but are not limited to:

- cash or any type of gifts;
- loans or cosigning of loans;
- vehicle or the use of a vehicle;
- payment for or arrangement of transportation costs;
- free or reduced cost goods or services;
- free or reduced cost housing;
- concert or sporting event tickets; or
- any item not expressly permitted under NCAA rules

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES?

Ohio State is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster provides an impermissible benefit to a prospect, a student-athlete, or their relatives or friends, Ohio State may be subject to penalties, even if the student-athlete has completed his or her eligibility. The prospect or student-athlete who accepts an impermissible benefit jeopardizes his or her eligibility for intercollegiate competition. A booster who provides an impermissible benefit may be disassociated from the university's athletics program. Disassociation results in a loss of all benefits or privileges offered by the department of athletics and may involve other penalties as appropriate.

GOT QUESTIONS? ASK COMPLIANCE.

The provided information is a brief overview of compliance and rules pertaining to boosters and their interactions with prospective and current student-athletes. It is not an exhaustive discussion.
